

The 2013 OFSAA Coaching Symposium will be held on May 9th & 10th at Brock University, St. Catharines, Ontario

The OFSAA Coaching Symposium is a great professional development conference that brings together teacher-coaches from across the province to learn, share ideas, and have fun! The program encompasses a wide variety of sessions for both curricular and co-curricular programs with sessions geared towards high school and elementary school teachers. The Coaching Symposium focuses on the technical side of coaching, providing sport-specific skills, drills, and strategies through both active and classroom sessions. The program offers sessions that range from introductory to advanced that will benefit both new and seasoned coaches. All sessions offered will be led by highly qualified and experienced coaches.

The Coaching Symposium will include sessions on; training methods, taping, fundraising, core training, ParaSport activities, as well as the Coaching in Ontario Schools Certification course and numerous sport-specific sessions. The program also offers a Keynote speaker, tradeshow, and social activities. An outline of the schedule can be viewed on the conference website via the link below. This is an opportunity that should not be missed!
